TRELAND'S ABLEST LEADER. Since Mr. Parnell's entrance into public life he has been a persistent and aggressive champion of home rule for Ireland, and has accomplished a great deal toward attaining that end. At the same time he has always conducted an open and honest warfare in behalf of his principles and never deseended to dynamite or demagogy With all of his aggressiveness he is a shrewd and clear-headed leader. He has watched for opportunities and promptly grasped them whenever they That was a brilliant stroke of his in throwing his strength with the Conservatives and thereby enabling them to defeat the Gladstone Ministry and return to power. It has given him a hold on the Conservative party which brings into his hands a powerful advantage. As a result came the bill which the Conservatives passed before Parliament was prorogued, the provisions of which entitle tenants in Ireland to acquire their holdings. If the Gladstone Ministry had not been over thrown no such bill would have passed and that Ministry could not have been overthrown except by the aid of the Tiome Rulers.

The efficacy of Mr. Parnell's methods is again being shown in a most striking manner. The pending campaign in England is a close one. It is so close that there is no doubt the majority of either side in the House of Commons will be so small that a vote of that body on any question can be thrown to the one side or the other by the Home Rule members. There are evidently great possibilities in such a state of affairs and Mr. Parnell fully appreclates the situation.

In a speech the other day he said that the two English parties, in order to secure the support of the Home Rule members would be competing to settle the Irish question. As he truly said, there is something solemn and dazzling in the thought that the present generation of Irishmen is about to witness the finish of a struggle of seven hundred years, carried on against such tremendous obstacles and odds. And let it be remembered that Mr. Parnell and his followers have never countenanced the methods of the dynamite faction. It is by agitation and clear-headed work that the wanton destruction of property and the blowing up of innocent women and children. Mr. Parnell is to-day, more than ever, the "uncrowned King of

GOSSIP ABOUT OHIO.

A Columbus special says that Governor Hondly has gone East to raise campaign funds, as money is very scarce out in Ohio and the party leaders on both sides are at something of a loss to know wherewithal their election machinery is to be lubricated.

A Baltimore special of later date informs us that Mr. Hoadly has arrived in that city, but nothing is said as to the object of his mission, excepting that the governor seems to be much more interested in an electric motor now operating on one of the suburban railways than he is in politics.

Putting this and that together the cursory observer of the situation might infer that in the absence of other resources on which to draw Governor Hoadly is trying to make a raise on his electric motor stock. But this would be a crude and doubtless inaccurate conclusion.

Governor Hoadly may be subject to occasional fits of absent-mindedness, as was shown in his recent recommendation of General Noyes for a Presidential appointment, but we have great faith in his sagacity as a tactician. It may be set down as certain that a candidate who left his party at the last election, when it was in much sorer straits than it is now, and came on to Philadelphia to enjoy a refreshing season of malaria, and then went back to be elected by a majority that was an astonisher to every Democrat in Ohio, is not making his present journey east ward for nothing, or without fully understanding what he is about.

It may be that he has an interest in the electric motor at Baltimore, but we may depend upon it that he has a larger interest at home and that he is not leaving it uncared for. At any rate the Democrats who are looking forward to the result in Ohio with con siderable solicitude all over the country, have no occasion to worry about the Governor's absence; while, so far as funds are concerned, there will be no trouble on that score so long as the opposition is troubled with the same complaint. Besides, an electric motor is a new thing in politics and may work won-

SYMPATHY FOR RIEL.

The French-Canadians are getting considerably worked up over the case of Louis Riel. They began by demand ing the commutation of his death sen tence, but so rapidly has the feeling of sympathy for the man developed that his friends now want a complete am nesty for him and all of the half breeds who were with him in the late rebellion. Meetings are being held at which the question is energetically agitated and

WASHINGTON CRITIC | the Riel fund which was started some time and is prowing daily, even the councils of one or two countles baying voted memory for his aid. One result of this agitation has been an order for a rehearing of the case before the Court of Appeals of Manitoba. Not only in Canada but south of the chain of lakes is there a decurrented feeling that Riel should not be executed. The Canadian Government will see that that feeling binet born of prejudice, and that there is justice in it. It is very improbable that the death sentence will be carried out.

Ir the Democrats of Virginia are sagacious in this campaign they will avoid any division of the issues involved and make a square fight for the State ticket and Legislature-not for the Legislature first and the State ticket second, or State first and Legislature second. The Petersburg Index Appear speaks with a level head on this subject It says: "If the policy is adopted or acting upon the supposition that the Legislature is of supreme importance d course the State ticket will be negected. It is a dangerous movement upon which these Democrats are entering. We are confident that no one would pursue it for a moment but for the idea too generally inculcated that the fight this year-or any late year-is against Mahone instead of against the

is overcome we can have a fight in Virginia between the parties, and the Democracy can carry all before it."

THE ST. LOUIS Globe-Democrat has set an example to the wealthy men of New York as well as to the wealthy newspapers in that city. There is a strong sentiment in St. Louis in favor of a monument in that city to General Grant. Already a considerable sum has been subscribed, the Glob: Democrat putting down $500, or one per cent, of the amount required for the monument. Now, if New York's wealthy men and newspapers would lmitate this Western newspaper they would be excused, even if they were not quite so affluent in their gifts. The fund for the Grant monument would then show a creditable upward ten dency, instead of dragging its slow length along in a manner that does not correspond at all to the eagerness which New York showed to have the General's remains interred within her MINISTER KEILEY, who has just returned from abroad, takes a sensible view of the unpleasant situation in which he has been placed by a curious succession of circumstances and will supported in it by the Government. He has no fault to find with Italy, be cause there was something of force in her objection to receiving him, but with Austria it is different. To his mind the reasons of the latter power for refecting his diplomatic presence are frivolous and disreputable, and as long as it went to the unnecessary trouble of stating those reasons he is determined that they shall be put on record. This much Mr. Keiley is certainly entitled to for his own vindication.

IN ACCORDANCE with Secretary Endicott's order about officers who have been four years absent from their com mand, Major-General Schofield, commanding the military division of the Missouri at Chicago, took action last Monday and issued orders detaching victory must be won by Ireland, not by | two of his three aides de camp. General William M. Wherry, captain Sixth Infantry, was a very distinguished staff been since 1867 the trusted member of General Schofield's military family He will be relieved October 1. First Lieutenant Charles B. Schoffeld, Sec ond Cavalry, is a younger brother of General Schofield, and has been on the staff since 1879. He will be relieved

THE thirteenth annual reunion of the Veterans of the Mexican War will be held at Indianapolis September 16 and 17, and elaborate arrangements are in progress for its success. THE great work of reform progresse pace. It is moving right along with the Administration. Comptroller Durham and Auditor Chenoweth especially deserve to be brevetted for gallant and meritorious service in the cause.

"Nor this year, but possibly som other year," says General Butler; "I am out of politics for the present. At least that's about the size of his atest promulgation,

What Nr. Hondly Says.

While in Baltimore yesterday Governor Hoadly said to a reporter: "We have a fair fighting chance. They beat us last fall by fighting chance. They beat us last fail by 11,000 votes, but then they had Mr. Blaine's personal canvass to help them and any amount of premises of patronage which he made right and left all over the State. He made enough promises of places in Ohio to bankrupt twenty national administrations of course we fight the Republicans this year without that element in their favor, for Blaine, not haying anything a t his disposal, tressent or processestive, cannot hold out any present or prospective, cannot hold out an inducements in the way of offices. It rather on the other side this year, and the gives us the vim to go into the fight wit prospects of winning."

A NAME IN THE SAND.

Alone I walked the ocean strand, A pearly shell was in my hand; I stooped and wrote upon the sand My mane, the year, the day, As coward from the spat I proced, One lingering look behind I cast; A wave came polling high and fast, And washed my line away.

And so, methought, 'twill quickly be,
With every mark on earth from me.
A wave of dark oblivion' sea
Will sweep across the place
Where I have frod the sandy shore
Of time, and been, to be no moreof me, my day, the name I bore.
To leave no track or trace.

And yet with Him who counts the sands, And holds the waters in his hands, I know a losting record stands. Inscribed against any name, of all this mortal part has wrought, of all this thinking soul has thought, And from these feeting moments caught, For glery or for shame.

—George D. Prentice.
